Application for anticipatory bail. The petitioner, a woman, apprehends arrest on the allegation that she has committed non-bailable offences.

2. The learned Public Prosecutor, on instructions, submits that a petition has been received. There is no crime registered against the petitioner. The petitioner shall not be arrested on the allegation that she has committed any non-bailable offence. Notice was issued to the petitioner by the police in connection with enquiry relating to the petition. The petitioner may be directed to co-operate with the police in such enquiry, submits the learned Public Prosecutor.

3. I take note of the submissions of the learned Public Prosecutor and the undertaking that the petitioner shall not be arrested.

4. The learned Public Prosecutor submits that subsequently if the petitioner were to be arrested on the allegations referred to by him in the petition, notice shall be given to the petitioner and prior permission of this court shall be taken.

5. I take note of and record the submissions of the learned Public Prosecutor. The same are accepted. This bail application is in these circumstances dismissed holding that the apprehension of the petitioner is without any basis.
